

Thomas Cook confirms 20 new own-brand hotels for 2019

Hotel Details

Casa Cook – summer 2019

- Casa Cook Chania – the first family-friendly Casa Cook will open next summer offering an innovative kids' concept where the little ones learn and explore in a natural and creative manner, following their individual interests through cooking classes, painting workshops and sleepovers in a tepee camp. Each of the seven room types – ranging from Superior Double Rooms to Family and Presidential Villas – are designed as private sanctuaries. Warm and full of character, each room is fitted out with luxuries, both little and large, and tailored with sophistication and convenience.
- Casa Cook Ibiza – set near the secluded bay of Cala Gracio, Casa Cook Ibiza has been designed with the postmodern traveller in mind. The 189-room hotel will offer two exclusive restaurants – one offering vegan-inspired and the other locally-inspired cuisine, both with outdoor pools in front. It will also feature a spa with hammam and treatment rooms as well as a well-equipped gym. The rooms – which range from Double Standard to Penthouse rooms with large rooftop terraces offering stunning views across the bay – have been artfully designed to seamlessly blur the boundary between interior and exterior, with privacy at the heart.

Cook's Club – opening summer 2019

- Cook's Club Palma Beach – a 318-room full-refurbished hotel in the heart of Playa de Palma, a popular and lively area of Majorca. A large central pool is surrounded by cabanas and a bar with adjoining restaurant offering music throughout the day and into the evening.
- Cook's Club Tigaki Kos – a 63-room beachside hotel in Kos' popular resort town of Tigaki. The hotel is centred on the pool and restaurant offering Greek classics alongside streetfood and vegan dishes. Guests can enjoy beach volleyball moments from the hotel or hire bikes to explore the local area.
- Cook's Club Adakoy Marmaris – a 130-room hotel with its own private marina a boat ride away from the heart of Marmaris. The contemporary design hotel also includes extensive sports facilities including football courts, beach volleyball, tennis as well as a PADI diving centre. The hotel will offer guests boat rides into the nightlife of Marmaris or guests can hang out all day at their own private beach.
- Cook's Club Alanya – a 115-room fully-refurbished hotel in the heart of Alanya town with easy access to the sandy Cleopatra Beach. This stylish hotel offers the best of the lively restaurants and bars of Alanya right on the doorstep as well as its own beach area where guests can relax and unwind during the day.
- Cook's Club Sardinia – 110-room hotel in San Teodoro on Sardinia's eastern coast offers villa-style accommodation among large gardens close to the white sandy beach, La Cinta with a private area exclusive to guests. Offering a relaxed holiday escape a short walk into the village of San Teodoro, the hotel is also convenient for trips in to nearby Olbia.

- Cook's Club Lambi Kos – the brand new, 250-room hotel in Kos, Greece will have three pools at its centre steps away from Lambi Beach. Poolside and beachside cabanas offer guests the perfect place to soak up the sun during the day or more active holidaymakers can choose from watersports including paddleboarding or scuba-diving.

Winter 19/20

- Cook's Club Gambia – this fully-refurbished beachfront hotel sits in a prime position near Gambia's Palma Rima resort. Accommodation is arranged in villas around a large central pool surrounded by a lively bar and restaurant.
